SYED NOOR MD SHAKIR

At age five Mr. Syed Noor Md Shakir acquired blindness due to Glaucoma. As a student he captained the Andhra Pradesh cricket team for the visually challenged. You may be surprised to know that he works on a common personal computer by means of a specially designed talking software. By sheer will power and determination he became the first and only visually challenged to have done MBA with electives in human resource management and financial management in Andhra Pradesh. He has his second masters degree in English literature with elective in John Milton. He has entered into The Limca Book of World Records by transcribing the holy Koran into English Braille. He has gained teaching as well as corporate industrial experience, by serving as an Assistant Professor of business management AT AN ENGINEERING COLLEGE AT Nellore and as a Team Manager at Tata Teleservices Bangalore respectively.

Today he's the Managing Director of his own firm Empower which has counselled, trained and developed thousands of people as part of human resource development programmes. He has a burning desire to make a difference in people's lives through his trainings. Currently he's authoring a book on human psychology called "The Principles of Happy Living." Needless to say, he's a living example, inspiration and a role model to many people. He's "a lighthouse, for many ships sailing around him."

Welcome to Empower, one of the fastest growing training and consulting firms in India today. Since 15th Dec 2005 we've led over two hundred motivational seminars not only in AP but across India covering various MNCs like Mitsubishi Electrical Company, Ascendas, ICICI Prudential, Bajaj Allianz Life Insurance, Life Insurance Corporation of India, Met Life Insurance, Keerthilal Jewelers etc.

Mr. Syed Noor Md Shakir the Founder Director of Empower got blindness due to Glaucoma at age five. In spite of blindness he fought against all odds of his life by translating every problem into a challenge and by sheer will power and determination he went on to become the first and only visually challenged to do MBA from AP, with electives in human resource management and financial management. Also, His name has been enlisted in page 103 of The prestigious Limca Book of Records of 2002 edition for transcribing the holy Koran into English Braille. For all his achievements he was felicitated by his Excellency the former president of India Dr. APJ. Abdul Kalam on 1 February 2007.

Our strength lies in inspiring people, thereby helping them to bridge the gap between what they are and what they can be. We'd like to lead a workshop for your students where we can touch, turn and transform their lives through our training. We'd like to conduct a one-day workshop on the following soft skills for the students of final year engineering:

A ONE-DAY WORKSHOP ON PLACEMENT ORIENTATION

(Beneficial for final year students).

1. Entrepreneurship development.
2. How to design a professional resume
3. How to participate in a group discussion.
4. How to face an HR interview
5. Dress code and body language.

The remuneration to be paid for the workshop is Rs. 15000/-. We've enclosed Mr. Shakir's resume for your kind reference.
