IT Policy

Background and Scope:

JBLET College has developed the Computer and Network Use Policy to guide individuals in the acceptable use of computers, information systems, and networks owned, leased or used by JBLET College. All such systems and networks are considered JBLET College property for purposes of this policy. This policy is also intended to describe best practices to ensure availability, integrity, reliability, privacy, and confidentiality of the College's computers, information systems, data, and networks. JBLET College makes computing and network resources available to faculty, staff, students, and, to some extent the general public, to support the educational, scholarship, research, and service mission of the College.

This policy supplements other JBLET College policies and procedures, including, but not JBLETted to, the E-Mail Policy, Peer-to-Peer File Sharing Policy, Social Media Policy, and Connecting Devices to the JBLET College Network Policy, should be read together with those policies.

The College reserves the right to amend this policy at its discretion with or without notice. In case of amendments to the policy, JBLET College will make efforts to inform users of changes.

POLICY AND USER RESPONSIBILITIES:

JBLET College's computing and network resources and services are JBLETted and should be used wisely and carefully with consideration for the needs of others. By using the College's computers, information systems, and networks, "you" – user of College computing resources, assume personal responsibility for acceptable use in conformity with this policy, other applicable JBLET College policies, and with applicable federal, state, and local laws and regulations.

All communications and information transmitted by or through, received by or from, or stored in these systems are JBLET College records and property of JBLET College. You have no right of personal privacy in any matter stored in, created, received, or sent over JBLET College computers, storage devices, email, internet, or voicemail system. Federal, State and Local Laws:

All computer and network users are bound by applicable federal, state, and local laws relating to harassment, copyright, security, and privacy relating to digital media. The IT Department will cooperate fully with any local, state or federal law enforcement officials investigating any illegal use of JBIET College information technology resources.

IT Department Responsibilities:

Beyond controlling access and protecting against unauthorized access and computer or network threats, the IT Department plays a proactive role in developing, implementing and enforcing security or network procedures. Using hardware infrastructure and software tools, utilities and applications, the IT Department will maintain a network and computing environment enabling authorized campus users secure, reliable access to internal and external networking resources and applications.

The IT Department will respect and strive to ensure users' privacy and intellectual property while managing the computing and network infrastructure and information application transactions and data.

At times the IT Department may need to reconfigure network and/or computing resources. These actions include, but are not JBIETted to, temporarily disabling access to an individual system, temporarily disabling access to/from a specific segment of the JBIET College Local Area Network. Though rare and short in duration, these steps are necessary to isolate problems and threats, enable quick resolution, as well as for periodic system maintenance/upgrades.

Policy Enforcement:

JBIET College at all times retains the right, without notice, to search all directories, indices, data storage devices of any type, files, databases, e-mail messages, voicemail messages, Internet access logs and any other electronic transmissions contained in or used in conjunction with JBIET College's computer, e-mail, voicemail and Internet access systems and equipment.

IT Department senior staff and administrators will investigate alleged violations of this policy in order to ensure compliance. The IT Department may restrict individuals from the use of computers and networks where violations of this policy or federal, state, or local laws is suspected and/or found. Violations of this policy by a student may result in disciplinary action.
