

REPORT ON Traditional Day 2024

16th March, 2024

On 16th March, 2024 JBIET College burst into a spectacle of vibrant colors and joyous festivities as it embraced Traditional Day with open arms, a meticulously orchestrated event by the diligent efforts of the Student Activity Centre-JBIET. The campus was a hive of activity, brimming with eager anticipation as students, faculty, and staff eagerly gathered to partake in the day's festivities.

The undisputed highlight of the day undoubtedly was the electrifying performance by the esteemed band, Band Chitralahari. Their captivating melodies reverberated across the campus, effortlessly capturing the hearts of the audience. In no time, the rhythmic beats had the students swaying in unison, infusing the atmosphere with an infectious energy and fervour that resonated throughout.

Adding to the allure of the festivities was the esteemed presence of our distinguished Alumni of JBIET, Mr. Anchor Ravi Garu, and his family. Their attendance infused the event with a sense of nostalgia and pride, elevating the proceedings to new heights. The anticipation reached a crescendo as Viya, Anchor Ravi's adorable daughter, took to the stage and effortlessly capturing the attention of everyone present with her innocent charm.

A standout moment of the day was undoubtedly Viya's enchanting dance performance on stage. Her adorable moves and infectious enthusiasm left the audience spellbound, as they watched in awe of her undeniable talent. The sheer innocence and cuteness of her performance added an extra layer of joy and delight to the festivities, creating cherished memories for all.

A small token of appreciation for the SAC Student Coordinators who responsibly worked day and night tirelessly for the event to happen, Appreciation Certificates and Medals were given to the Student Coordinators and the SAC President K. TejaRam and the Vice Presidents were also given the momentous as a token of appreciation by our Chief Guest Anchor Ravi and all the dignitaries on the stage.

However, the climax of excitement was reached during the highly anticipated Mr. & Ms. JBIET event, a grand showcase of talent and charisma. The Mr. & Ms. JBIET contest had its distinguished panel of judges, comprising Ms. Sultana, Ms. Swaroopa, and Mr. Kartigeyan. They observed the participants closely and chose the winners based on various criteria. In three exhilarating rounds, contestants dazzled the audience with their grace and wit. The ramp walk exuded elegance and confidence, while the chit-picking round brought forth spontaneous bursts of laughter with its humorous questions. As the competition culminated in the final round, contestants faced a panel of discerning judges, showcasing their intellect and poise, leaving everyone in admiration of their remarkable capabilities. And finally after a very close battle among the contenders after three rounds, there comes the moment for which all the JBIET was eagerly waiting for, the announcement of Mr. & Ms. JBIET. After a thorough assessment, Revanth Chowdhary from CSE Dept was crowned Mr. JBIET, and Anuradha from CSE Dept claimed the title for Ms. JBIET.

Amidst the jubilant revelry, the campus was bedecked in a riot of colours and decorations, with students, faculty, and staff adorning themselves in resplendent traditional attire, further enhancing the festive ambiance and fostering a sense of unity and camaraderie among all.

As the day drew to a close, the college erupted in cheers and applause as the winners of the Inter-Branch Sports Trophy were announced. The ECE branch emerged triumphant, displaying exemplary teamwork and skill, while the AIML branch secured a commendable second place, embodying the spirit of sportsmanship and competitive zeal.

In conclusion, Traditional Day at JBIET College was more than just a celebration; it was a joyous ode to our rich cultural heritage and the enduring spirit of community. It was a day brimming with music, dance, and camaraderie, where memories were made and bonds were strengthened. As we reflect on the festivities and look forward to future celebrations, let us cherish the memories of this enchanting occasion and continue to uphold the traditions that unite us all.
