

REPORT ON SPOORTHY 2025

11TH MARCH, 2025

SPOORTHY 2025 was a spectacular extravaganza event on stage from dazzling performances to breathtaking creativity with unmatched enthusiasm and artistic brilliance, held on 11th March 2025 at the MNR Open Air Auditorium, this cultural fest was a true testament to the talent and dedication of JBIET students. Students from various branches came together participated with vibrant energy and electrifying performances.

With the huge excitement and anticipation, the event officially started with an inspiring introduction of SPOORTHY by highlighting the fest's legacy and its remarkable journey over the years by Ms. Janvika. Reliving the magic of beautifully captured essence of the previous year's breathtaking performances, unforgettable moments and great hard work the audiovisual presentation on SPOORTHY 2024 was played.

Next came the grand introduction of the esteemed judges, who graced the event with their presence and expertise. The panel of judges are Judge1, judge2, judge3 their wisdom, experience, and passion for the arts elevated the competition, making it an extraordinary experience for both participants and spectators.

The true essence of SPOORTHY 2025 lay in its exhilarating lineup of cultural competitions. The participants put their heart and soul into every performance, leaving the audience spellbound. The dance performances, both solo and group, enthralled the audience with their grace, energy, and vibrant choreography. The singing competition brought forth mesmerizing renditions across multiple genres, leaving the crowd spellbound. The fine arts segment provided a platform for budding artists to showcase their creativity through breathtaking paintings and sketches. Beatboxing enthusiasts impressed everyone with their rhythmic and vocal percussion skills, adding an electrifying dimension to the event. Meanwhile, the stand-up comedy acts infused the atmosphere with humour and wit, as performers delivered engaging and entertaining routines that resonated with the audience. Each competition served as a testament to the immense potential and artistic brilliance of JBIET's students, fostering a sense of camaraderie and a spirit of healthy competition.

Each competition was a battlefield of extraordinary talent, making the judging process both thrilling and challenging. The energy of the audience and the roaring cheers made every moment even more spectacular

As the event neared its conclusion, Dr. PC. Krishnamachary , Principal of JBIET took the stage, delivering the inspiring words of appreciation and encouragement lifted the spirits of all students, reminding them of the power of passion, dedication, and perseverance.

Then came the much-awaited prize distribution ceremony, a moment of pure excitement and joy. The winners from each category were honored with prestigious awards, certificates, and gleaming trophies, acknowledging their hard work, commitment, and exceptional performances. As they stepped onto the stage to receive their accolades, the cheers from their fellow students created an atmosphere of unity, celebration, and inspiration.

SPOORTHY 2025 was not just an event; it was a spectacular showcase of artistic passion and a celebration of unity. It reinforced the power of creativity, determination, and teamwork, leaving an everlasting impact on all who participated and attended. The dedication and enthusiasm of the students turned this fest into an extraordinary experience, setting a new benchmark for future celebrations.

